Introduction

What can your local City/County Childcare Committee (CCC) do for you?

City/County Childcare Committees (CCCs) were established nationally in 2001 to encourage the development of childcare locally. CCCs offer a wide variety of services locally; we offer information and guidance to childcare providers, childminders, parents and the general public on a variety of issues relating to childcare.

CCCs administer three national childcare funding programmes on behalf of the Department of Children and Youth Affairs (DCYA).

The aim of this guide is to provide parents with information about the national childcare funding programmes.

Different Types of Childcare

Childcare services may provide full-time, part-time, sessional and school-age services. Fees charged are generally at the discretion of the childcare service.

Private Childcare Providers

Private Providers offer quality childcare services that are run as private businesses. These childcare services range from small businesses that are operated by sole traders to large childcare facilities that are operated by companies, some of which may have a number of different childcare facilities in different locations. Private Childcare Services may offer the Early Childhood Care and Education Programme (ECCE), Community Childcare Subvention Private Programme (CCSP) and Training and Employment Childcare (TEC) Childcare Funding Programmes.

Community Childcare Providers

Community Childcare Providers offer community based, not-for-profit childcare services. A Community Childcare Service is run by a voluntary Board of Management. Community based childcare services may offer the CCS, ECCE and TEC childcare funding programmes.

Childminders

A Childminder is a self-employed person who minds other people's children in their own home. Childminders may offer the ECCE programme, subject to meeting certain criteria.

Early Childhood Care and Education (ECCE) Programme

The Free Pre-School Year in the Early Childhood Care and Education Programme (ECCE) is a universal childcare programme designed to give children access to 2 years free pre-school education before they start primary school.

Is my child eligible for the ECCE Programme?

The age criteria for the current and coming pre-school year is as follows in relation to the ECCE Programme:

To avail of the ECCE programme at any stage during the year before the pre-school year	Children must have been born between the following dates (both dates inclusive)
September 2014 – June 2015	2nd February 2010 – 30th June 2011
September 2015 – June 2016	2nd February 2011 – 30th June 2012
To avail of the ECCE programme with effect from	Children must have been born between the following dates (both dates inclusive)
September 2016 – June 2017	1st January 2012 – 31st August 2013
January 2017 – June 2017	1st January 2012 – 31st December 2013
April 2017 – June 2017	1st January 2012 – 31st March 2014

How much will it cost?

If your child is eligible for the free pre-school year then your child is entitled to a pre-school session of 3 hours per day, 5 days per week, for 38 weeks, for free.

Childcare services can charge for additional services that they provide, such as additional hours and optional extra activities, such as trips, swimming, parties, etc. Childcare services receive a capitation of €64.50 per week for 38 weeks, for each child. If you avail of extra hours/ optional activities, your ECCE payment will be applied as a reduction of €64.50 weekly for 38 weeks.

It is not mandatory that children attend 5 days per week but, where they do not, the capitation fee will be reduced on a pro-rata basis.

How do I know which childcare services are in the ECCE programme, and how do I get a place for my child?

A list of current ECCE services is available from your local City/County Childcare Committee. You should make contact with some local childcare services to see if they have ECCE places available. They will explain their fees to you, along with any extras that they offer. Once you have found a childcare service that you wish your child to attend, they will ask you for some information about your child, such as your child's PPS number and date of birth.

Can I transfer my child from one childcare service to another?

You may choose to transfer your child from one ECCE service to another at any stage during the pre-school year. You must give 4 weeks' notice to the childcare service, and you are required to complete a transfer form, which must be signed by the original service and the new service. If you transfer your child without any notice period, the original service will be paid 4 weeks capitation in lieu of notice and you will have to pay fees for the following 4 weeks in the new service.

Can I use a Childminder instead?

Yes, childminders who meet certain requirements can apply to provide the ECCE programme.

Please contact your local City/County Childcare Committee to find out if any childminders in your area are participating in the programme.

What if my child is too old to participate in the ECCE programme?

If your child is above the age range for the ECCE programme, there are some circumstances under which they may still avail of the programme:

The upper age limit of 4 years 7 months may be extended where a child is not in a position to commence primary school until they are more than 5 years 6 months of age, due either to the enrolment policy of the local school, or because s/he has been assessed as developmentally delayed. Applications for an extension of the upper age limit will be examined on a case-by-case basis. Please note that under the Education and Welfare Act 2000 all children must be enrolled in a primary school by the time they reach their 6th birthday.

Children with a Disability entering the ECCE year in September 2016

A new National Disability Model – Access Inclusion Model (AIM) will be fully operational in September 2016. AIM focuses on the developmental level of children with disabilities, their functional ability and their needs. It does not focus on diagnosis, and in any event, it recognises that many children may not have a formal diagnosis at the time of presenting to pre-school.

There are 7 levels to the new National Disability Model.

Level 1: An Inclusive Culture: This level is the critical foundation for the model. This sets out that a strong culture of inclusion must be fostered and embedded to support all children's maximum participation in the ECCE Programme. Recommendations include the development of a national inclusion policy for ECCE, the identification of an Inclusion Co-ordinator in each ECCE setting, funding being made available to provide training in inclusion for these and other early years practitioners, and a small increase in capitation for ECCE settings who meet certain criteria to incentivise fully inclusive practice.

Level 2: Information for Parents and Providers: This level recognises the requirement of parents and providers to have clear, consistent and up to date information accessible to them regarding ECCE services and supports. Recommendations include the development of a national website which is linked from all relevant children's services and the development of information packs which can be provided at local level.

Level 3: A Qualified and Confident Workforce: This level recognises the requirement to continue to develop a qualified workforce that can confidently meet the needs of all children wishing to participate in the ECCE Programme. It supports the recommendation from the Interdepartmental Group (IDG) on Future Investment in Early Years and School Aged (Including After-School and Out-of-School) Care and Education to continue to raise the minimum qualification for employment in the sector. It also seeks dedicated funding for formal and informal training and a structure to be put in place to ensure same.

Level 4: Expert Educational Advice and Support: This level addresses the needs of early years practitioners across the country to have timely access to advice and support from experts in early years education (and disability in particular) to assist them meet each child's needs. It recommends an enhancement of the Better Start Early Years Specialist Service (EYSS) that was established in 2014.

Level 5: Equipment, Appliances and Minor Alterations Capital Grant: This level recognises that some children require specialised equipment, appliances, assistive technology and/or that some ECCE settings may require minor structural alterations to ensure children with a disability can participate in the ECCE Programme. It recommends the provision of annual funding, the establishment of a grant and an application process to access these supports.

Level 6: Therapeutic Intervention: This level provides for access to therapeutic services where they are critical to enable the child be enrolled, and fully participate, in the ECCE Programme. It recommends further enhancement of HSE Therapy Services to enable priority be given to this important aspect of early intervention.

Level 7: Additional Assistance in the Pre-School Room: This level recognises that a small number of children (approximately 1.0% – 1.5% of those availing of the ECCE Programme) will require more support than is available through Levels 1 – 6. The IDG recommends the provision of additional capitation to providers where an application process has demonstrated that supports for Levels 1 – 6 have not, or will not, by themselves, meet the child's needs. The additional capitation will be agreed with the provider and parent. It can be used by the provider to buy in additional support, to reduce the staff/child ratio, or for other specified purposes, all centred on supporting the pre-school leader to ensure the child's optimal participation.

To find out more information on the ECCE Programme or the Access and Inclusion Model contact your local City/County Childcare Committee or your Early Childhood Service where you would like your child to attend the ECCE programme.

A full list of conditions and frequently asked questions about the ECCE programme is available on the Department of Children and Youth Affairs website www.dcy.gov.ie.

Training and Employment Childcare (TEC) Programmes

The objective of the TEC Programmes is to support parents on eligible training courses and eligible categories of parents returning to work, by providing subsidised childcare places.

There are 3 strands of the TEC programme:

- Childcare Education and Training Support programme (CETS)

The CETS Programme formerly catered for FÁS and VEC training course participants and now provides subsidised childcare on behalf of the Local Education and Training Boards (ETBs).

- After-School Child Care programme (ASCC)

The ASCC is administered on behalf of the Department of Social Protection (DSP) and provides after-school care for primary school children of certain categories of working parents and parents on DSP employment programmes (not including Community Employment).

- Community Employment Childcare programme (CEC)

The CEC is administered on behalf of the Department of Social Protection (DSP) and provides childcare for children of parents who are participating on Community Employment schemes.

Childcare Education and Training Support programme (CETS)

CETS is for parents completing ETB / Solas courses (formerly FÁS and VEC courses). It is administered on behalf of the Department of Education.

Childcare places can be full-time, part-time, after-school only or after-school with transport places. ETBs and Solas have sole responsibility for deciding who is eligible to avail of this strand of the TEC Programme.

How do I know if I'm eligible for a CETS place?

- Parents are entitled to a maximum of 52 weeks on the scheme, regardless of how many days a week they may avail of.
- Services will be paid for 52 weeks in total
- Where eligible parents require childcare for morning periods before the child starts school, rather than after-school hours, this can be accommodated under the scheme. The same rates apply.

General questions about TEC programmes

Am I guaranteed a childcare place, if I get a letter of eligibility?

For all 3 TEC programmes, places are allocated on a first come, first served basis, up to a maximum number of places available. Therefore, eligibility for a TEC programme does not guarantee you a subsidised childcare place.

Can I transfer from one childcare service to another?

You can choose to transfer your child from one TEC service to another. You must give 2 weeks' notice to the childcare service, and you are required to complete a TEC leaver form, which must also be signed by the existing service, and the new service.

Can I use a childminder instead?

Childminders cannot offer the TEC programme.

A full list of conditions and frequently asked questions about the TEC programmes is available on the Department of Children and Youth Affairs website www.dcy.gov.ie.

If you have any queries or concerns in relation to the TEC programmes, please contact your local City/County Childcare Committee who will be able to help you with your query.

Síolta Information for Parents

Síolta, the National Quality Framework for Early Childhood Education, was developed by the Centre for Early Childhood Development and Education on behalf of the Department of Education and Skills. It was published in 2006, following a three-year developmental process, which involved consultation with more than 50 diverse organisations, representing childcare workers, teachers, parents, policy makers, researchers and other interested parties.

Síolta is designed to define, assess and support the improvement of quality across all aspects of practice in early childhood care and education (ECCE) settings where children aged birth to six years are present. These settings include:

- Full-time and Part-time Daycare
- Childminding
- Sessional services
- Infant classes in primary schools

Since December 2008, the Early Years Education Policy Unit, in the Department of Education and Skills, has been responsible for the implementation of Síolta. Early Childhood Care and Education services participating in the Free Pre-school Early Childhood Care and Education (ECCE) scheme are required to “adhere to the principles of Síolta.”

Core Elements of Síolta

Síolta is comprised of three distinct but interrelated elements: Principles, Standards and Components of Quality. The 12 Principles provide the overall vision of the Framework, while the 16 Standards and 75 Components allow for the practical application of this vision across all aspects of ECCE practice. The Components of Quality are further explained by a set of Signposts for Reflection and ‘Think-about’s’ which are intended to support practitioners in early education settings to become aware of and critical of their practice. These core elements of Síolta are set out in detail in each of the Síolta user manuals.

For more information go to www.siolta.ie .

Aistear Information for Parents

Parents play a key role in their children’s education. Effective early childhood settings and schools take account of the influence of the home on children’s learning and they build on the experience children bring to the setting or school. Establishing strong links with parents helps make children’s education as successful as possible.

The National Council for Curriculum and Assessment (NCCA) developed Aistear: the Early Childhood Curriculum Framework (2009) in partnership with the early childhood sector. Parents played a key role in this.

Aistear states that: “Parents are the most important people in children’s lives. The care and education that children receive from their parents and family, especially during their early months and years, greatly influence their overall development. Extended family and community also have important roles to play”.
(Principles and themes, p.9)

For more information and lots of useful resources go to the NCCA Aistear Toolkit at www.ncca.ie .
